

Daily Student Health Screening tool

Parents should check their child's well-being and temperature every day before leaving home.

May go to school

Keep student at home.
If student has upper respiratory symptoms, please call and speak with your family doctor about the possible need for further evaluation and/or testing.